

BUILT ON ICONIC HERITAGE

Stathams was a leader in motoring's early days, and here, on the site of Stathams garage, George Statham designed and built the 'Statham-Ford Special'.

Being a competitive businessman and a Ford Dealer, George couldn't resist having a go! He took a modified Ford Model A chassis and replaced the engine with a V-8. The result was the Stathams-Ford Special that competed successfully with factory-led racing teams such as MG, E.R.A. and Alfa Romeo.

It was not just on the famous Phoenix Park and Limerick circuits but also on the beaches of Tramore, Duncannon and Inch where it took victories, becoming known simply as the 'Irish', 'Famous' or 'Familiar' Ford Special and won a special place in the hearts of Irish motor sport followers the length and breadth of the island. Stathams was a driving force and today inspire us to excellence by its motor racing story and the trailblazing family that was at the heart of it.
